Your perspective on 'Performance'

Strategic Decisions & Alignment: Tell me about the last time you had to prioritize across competing initiatives — what insights drove your decision and how did you align with your leadership team?

Day-to-Day Leadership & Visibility: How do you stay close enough to progress without getting pulled into all the detail — and can you share an example where this balance was tested?

Tools, Information & Resistance: When you need quick clarity or answers, where do you go first — and what gets in the way of those sources being truly reliable or adopted by teams?

People-First Leadership: What key themes do you hear most often from your teams, especially frustrations — and how do you act on that feedback to ensure they feel heard?

Looking Forward: If “perfect” existed, what would staying connected to strategy execution look like — especially in freeing you to focus on the bigger strategic stakes?

Repetition & Decision-Making Efficiency: Which parts of your decision-making process feel repetitive or manual today — the things you wish could “just happen” or be prepared for you for performance?
